The Estrategias Inmobiliarias Trust's Issuance and Placement Program (the "Issuance Program"), its registration with the Securities and Issuers National Registry [Registro Nacional de Valores y Emisores], and its corresponding public offering in the Primary Market, were authorized by the Financial Superintendency [Superintendencia Financiera], as the originator fulfilled the procedures provided for in articles 5.2.1.1.3 to 5.2.1.1.5 of Decree 2555 of 2010 ("Decree 2555").

| Placement through Tranches: | The Tranches will have the same rights and financial conditions. Offerings of a Tranche shall not be made while the offering under the immediately preceding Tranche is valid. |
| Term of the Securities: | The Securities will be in force as of the Issuance Date of each Tranche and until the Trust's liquidation date. Therefore, the Securities' maximum redemption term cannot exceed the Trust Agreement's term under which the Trust is created, that is, ninety-nine (99) years, counted from the execution of such agreement, extendable with the parties' consent. |
| Profitability: | The Securities' profitability will result from any: (i) Appreciation of the Real Estate Assets making up the Trust; (ii) Appreciation of the other Permitted Investments of the Trust; (iii) Proceeds from the Real Estate Assets' Lease Fees, Monthly Concession Amounts agreed to in the Trust Real Estate Assets' concession contracts, Parking Spaces' Lease Fees, Parking Services, Entry Premiums, and Sponsorships; (iv) Compensations received from insurances; (v) Amounts that the tenants may be required to pay for the early termination of the Real Estate Assets' Lease Agreements; (vi) Amounts that the tenants pay as penalties under the Lease Agreements' provisions; (vii) Returns from these funds; and (viii) Amounts of money received by the Trust in any capacity, once the relevant discounts are made in accordance with the Trust Agreement. OVERVIEW OF THE REITS

The information provided in this chapter is a brief conceptual overview of the international real estate investment vehicles known as REITS, which illustrates their main features. Although the legal structures used for these purposes may be different from the real estate securitization used by PEI in Colombia, the Issuance Program aims to share the same characteristic principles of the REITs. The graph below shows the simplified operation of the REITs:

Inmueble = Property; Ocupa y Utiliza = Occupies and Uses; Negocio = Business; Compra y Maneja = Buys and Manages; Pago por Arrendamiento = Lease Fee; Beneficio Económico = Economic Benefit; Inversionistas = Investors.

This Issuance Program incorporates the main success factors of the REITs, developed through the Estrategias Inmobiliarias Trust (PEI), which will carry out a new real estate securitization (Eleventh Tranche) in the terms provided for hereunder and in the Trust Agreement.

Real estate trusts, commonly known as REITs (Real Estate Investment Trusts), are vehicles that purchase, develop, manage, and dispose of real estate properties. Additionally, depending on their goals and investment policy, these vehicles are characterized by being made up of a real estate portfolio diversified or specialized per economic activity and administered by a professional manager.

The REITs' profitability mainly proceeds from the leases' revenue and the portfolio's assets appreciation.

REITs emerged in 1960 in the United States, as an investment vehicle aimed at democratizing the opportunity to invest in large real estate portfolios.¹ Since then and, as of December 31, 2018, 226 equity REITs associated to NAREIT exist globally. By the end of 2018, REITs have over USD 2.0

trillion in assets and a market capitalization exceeding USD 1.0 trillion.²

Depending on their focus and investment strategy, these real estate vehicles invest in different sectors and industries, including offices, commerce, warehouses, hotels, and residential properties. In the United States, taking as a measurement variable the share per sector according to the capitalization published by NAREIT³, it is evidenced that most REITs are specialized by sector.

REITs' Advantages

REITs offer clear advantages for both real estate asset holders and those investing in the securities or interests issued by these vehicles.

For the real estate asset holders, REITs are an alternative to eventually free up capital through the sale of their real estate assets to the REIT, capital that they may use later in a number of ways, such as optimizing the cost of their capital structures and investing in their core business, with the expectation of achieving greater returns.

Similarly, for those investors acquiring the securities or interests issued by these vehicles, REITs offer an investment alternative with a balanced risk/return profile. The following are among the main features of these vehicles:

Diversification: REITs in the US stock market have shown a very low correlation with fixed-income securities and stocks, allowing a greater diversification of the institutional investors' portfolios. The following table, calculated with NAREIT's data, shows the correlation between REITs in the United States and other types of investments in stocks and fixed-income instruments in the United States' capital market:⁹

| REITs Correlation with Fixed-Income Securities and Stocks 30 Years (December 1988 – December 2018) | | | | |

| Bonds | S&P 500 | NASDAQ 100 | Dow Jones | Russell 200 |
| 0,524 | 0,553 | 0,36 | 0,578 | 0,629 |

Stable and Growing Flows: A diversified portfolio of real estate assets with top-tier tenants reduces credit risk and produces very stable and growing flows through time.

Management: A professional and specialized management is responsible for maximizing a dynamic and growing vehicle's performance.

Liquidity: Real estate assets do not characterize for having high-liquidity levels. However, the REITs' securities and interests listed with stock exchanges, show more attractive tradability levels than their underlying assets.

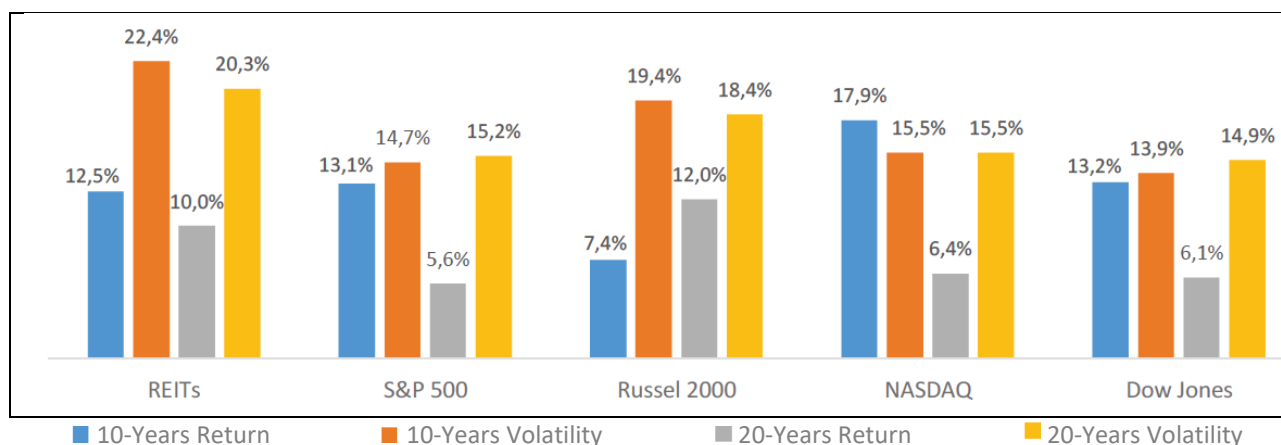

Risk-Return: One of the REITs' main appeals is the investment's risk-return ratio, compared to other investment alternatives offered by the capital market. The following graph, prepared by the Manager based on NAREIT's data, shows the REITs' risk-return ratio in the United States, compared to other types of equity and fixed-income investments therein:¹¹

There is not a REITs industry in Colombia with available data that enables a comparison of the long-term profitability with other market indices. Therefore, the United States market has been taken as the benchmark to assess this type of vehicles' risk-return performance over time.

Distributions: REITs distribute high yields compared to companies in other sectors. The following graph shows that REITs present an average "dividend yield" in the United States, between 2002 and December 31, 2018, close to 4.80% per year, while that of S&P 500 companies is 2.15%.¹³

REITs vs. Historical Real Estate Securitizations

There are fundamental differences between the above-described REITs and the traditional real estate securitizations, other than PEI's, in Colombia. So far, a significant number of real estate securitizations, other than PEI's, have had a series of limitations preventing them from developing into a dynamic scheme for both investors and originators.

Among the main difficulties observed are:

- Concentration in a single tenant and type of asset generates high credit risk for tenants, as well as market risks.
- They have not used the expert real estate asset manager for the administration of the real estate assets subject to securitization.
- Their term is usually limited, which may require liquidating the assets under unfavorable market conditions or require a repurchase obligation by the originator.

As a real estate vehicle in Colombia, PEI aims at emulating the main that international REITs have had with securities listed with stock exchanges, to capture the benefits from these structures. Below is a comparison:

Additionally, the Colombian market has investment vehicles comparable in certain aspects to the real estate securitizations, such as real estate collective investment funds (RECIF's) and private real estate capital funds (PCF's) investing in real estate assets.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY OF THE REAL ESTATE SECTOR'S PERFORMANCE IN COLOMBIA

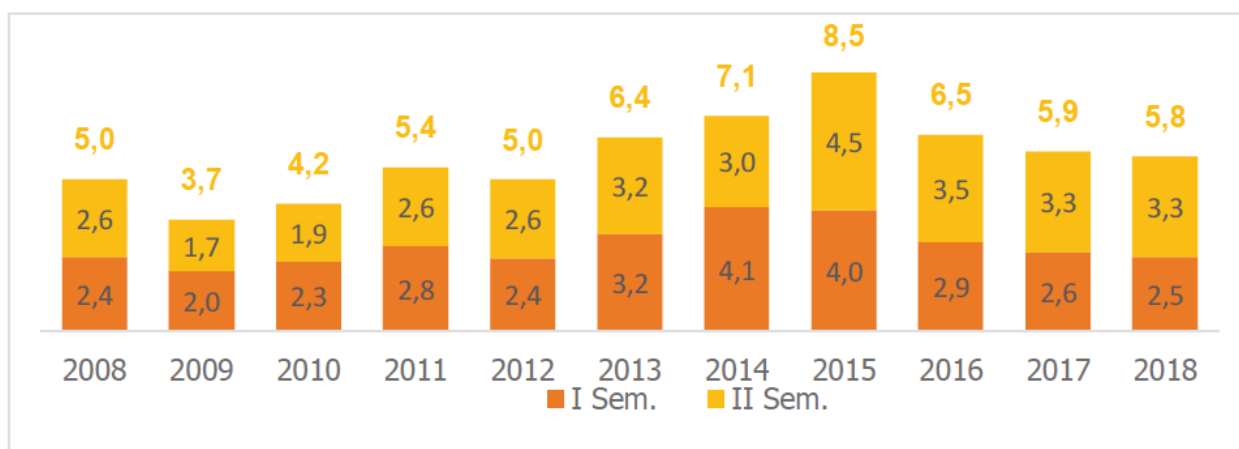

In general terms, 2018 was a year marked by high vacancy levels and a reduction of the market prices, becoming a favorable scenario for both purchasers and tenants. Nonetheless, the inventory absorption levels performed well, making it possible to foresee a rebound in the real estate sector's cycle and to expect vacancy decreases and an upward price correction in the next 12 to 18 months.

Below is the executive summary of the sector's performance in 2018, including an analysis of PEI's main categories of interest.

I. LICENSES: PERFORMANCE OF THE AREA APPROVED FOR NEW CONSTRUCTIONS

Approved Licenses

As of December 2018, over 22.4 million m² of construction licenses were approved in Colombia (including housing), representing a 4.6% decrease compared to the same period of 2017. The 5.9% housing licenses' and 0.9% non-housing licenses' declines explain this result. Although sectors such as Warehouses, Hotels, and Commerce decreased the approved non-housing licenses by 635,551 m², the office and industrial sectors contributed 354,192 m² in new construction licenses. The following graph –prepared by the Real Estate Manager with DANE's data– shows the approved licenses behavior:

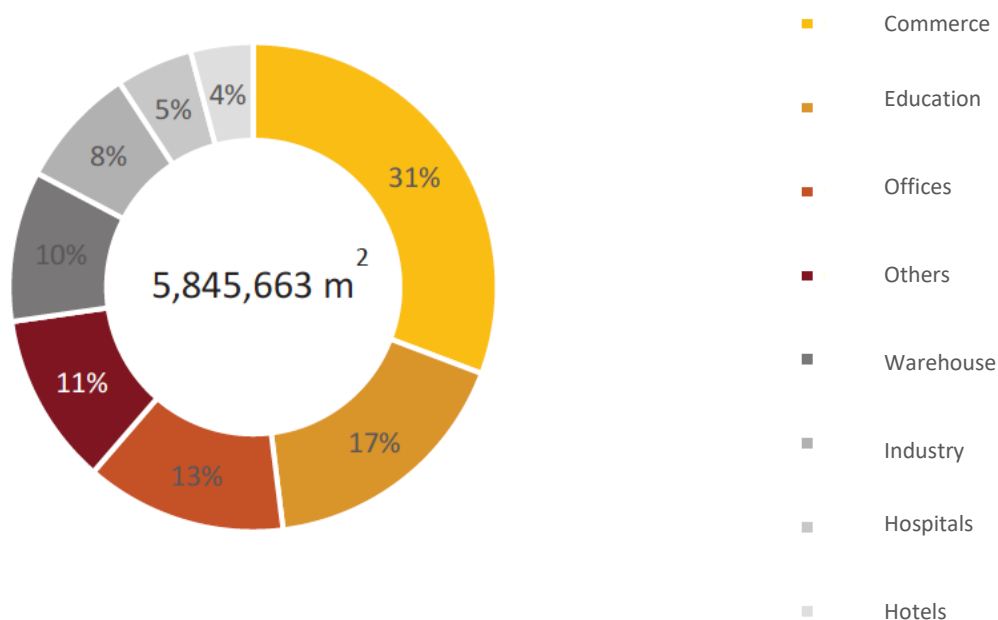

The Mayor's Office of Bogota is expected to approve a new Territorial Order Plan (POT by its initials in Spanish) that may eventually generate a considerable increase of the approved licenses in the different categories of the country's capital throughout 2019, as typically happens whenever the POT is changed.

Non-Housing Licenses Approved per Economic Sector

Of the licenses approved for non-housing use as of December 2018, the commerce sector had the highest share with 31%, equivalent to 1.8 million m². Among those of interest to PEI are also the education categories with a 17% share, equivalent to 1.0 million m²; the office sector with 13%, equivalent to 0.8 million m²; and the industrial and warehouse sectors with 8% and 10%, respectively, equivalent to more than one million m² of the approved licenses.

On the other hand, it is important to note that in 2018 the category with the highest increase in licensed square meters was offices, with 0.8 million m² approved, which implies an 55% increase compared to the licenses approved for the same period of the year before. Similarly, the licenses approved for the industrial sector closed at 0.5 million m², implying a 20% increase compared to the same period of 2017. Finally, in the commerce sector, 1.8 million m² were approved, dropping by 6% compared to the same period of 2017. Similarly, in the warehouse sector, the number of licenses approved decreased by 39%, so that 0.6 million m² were approved by the end of 2018. The graph below –prepared by the Real Estate Manager with DANE's data– shows the share per sector of the total non-housing licenses authorized in 2018:

Non-Housing Licenses Per Economic Sector

Source: Construction licenses statistics (CLIS), DANE - Calculations: PE Asset Management S.A.S.

Non-Housing Licenses Approved Per Department and in Bogota D.C.

It is worth noting that 51% of the non-housing licenses approved concentrated in Bogota D.C. and the departments of Cundinamarca and Antioquia, where 1.2 million m², 1.0 million m², and 0.9 million m² were licensed, respectively.

The 205,808 m² increase resulting from the licenses approved in Bogota –equivalent to an 11% increase compared to the same period of the previous year– is significant and was mainly driven by the office sector.

Among the departments showing the most dynamism compared to the same period of the previous year were Cundinamarca, with an increase of 77,029 m²; Bolivar, with an increase of 66,033 m², and Atlantico, with an increase of 58,994 m² of approved non-housing licenses.

It is worth noting that, in Cundinamarca, the 77,029 m² increase –equivalent to a 10% rise of the approved licenses compared to the previous year– was mainly driven by the warehouses and hospital sectors, while in Bolivar the 66,033 m² increase –equivalent to a 24% rise of the approved licenses compared to the previous year– is largely explained by the commercial and office sectors. Finally, Atlantico's increase of approved licenses was driven by the commercial and industrial sectors. The graph below –prepared by the Real Estate Manager with DANE's data– shows the share per department of the total non-housing licenses authorized in 2018:

Non-Housing Licenses Approved Per Department and in Bogota D.C.

Source: Construction licenses statistics (CLIS), DANE - Calculations: PEI Asset Management S.A.S.

In Bogota, over 1.2 MM m² were approved, equivalent to a 20% share of the national total. The office category grew by 259,196 m², reaching a total licensed area of 572,323 m², followed by the commercial category, which increased by 49,329 m² to reach a total licensed area of 277,434 m². Finally, it is worth highlighting the hotel sector's increase by 15,723 m², which drove the approved licenses in this category to increase to 32,551 m².

On the other hand, certain sectors in Bogota showed a decrease in the number of approved licenses compared to the previous year. The education sector showed a 44% reduction of the licenses, equivalent to 140,363 m², reaching a total of 179,220 m² licensed. Similarly, the licenses approved in the warehouse sector decreased by 4,541 m² compared to the previous year, for a total 1,703 m² licensed. The graph below –prepared by the Real Estate Manager with DANE's data– shows the share per department on the total non-housing licenses authorized in 2018:

II. MARKET: PERFORMANCE OF THE REAL ESTATE MARKET FOR OFFICES IN COLOMBIA

Based on the information and statistics collected by Colliers International, an analysis of the office sector by the end of 2018 appears below. To standardize the analysis, Colliers International's criteria were used to classify the office inventory:

Class A+ (A Plus): Class A+ (A Plus) buildings are deemed high-specification and include criteria such as, construction time below or equal to 10 years, heights between floors and ceilings equal to or exceeding 3.5 meters, one parking space per every 40 m² of offices, advanced communications and fire and access security systems. Additionally, the location of, access roads to the building, and proximity to the city's important centers are deemed important variables.

Class A: The Class A buildings' features include construction times between 11 to 20 years, heights between floors and ceilings of up to 3,0 meters, one parking space per every 40 m² of offices, and access and fire security systems.

Class B: The Class B buildings' features include construction times between 21 to 25 years, simple heights of up to 2.5 meters, one parking space per every 50 m² or more of offices, and basic access and fire security systems.

Offices

According to Colliers International's studies, the inventory of the four main cities of the country stood at 3.8 million m², representing a 7.2% increase compared to the same period of the previous year. Three of the four cities showed an increase in inventory, except for Barranquilla, which maintained it at 225,000 m². Bogota D.C. closed the year with an inventory of 2.7 million m², representing a 72% share of the national total. Medellin reached 730,000 m² of inventory, growing 7% compared to the same period of the previous year. Finally, Cali increased by 4% its offices inventory, closing at 156,000 m².

In Bogota, the inventory increased because 23 buildings, such as Central Point, Elemento Torre Agua, Plaza Claro, and Torre 100 –representing 55,000 m² (2% of the total inventory)– started to operate in the market. It is important to note that, in the coming years, nearly 593,000 m² will enter the market, represented by 39 new projects, 44% of which are Class A buildings, standing among them Urban 165, Torre 126, and Floresta Business Center. Additionally, 33% of the projects will be Class A+, among them Atrio Torre Norte with 61,000 m² and 7-100 with 69,000 m². The remaining 23% of the projects will be Class B.

In Medellin, the 7% increase results from 4,000 new square meters represented by 5 projects located in the corridors of Las Palmas and El Poblado. Within these projects, the BIO 26 Torre Norte, Q Office, 35 Palms, and Square Trade & Home buildings stand out. 89% of the new supply of offices in Medellin is concentrated in Las Palmas and El Poblado corridor, and 4 projects totaling over 46,000 m² are expected for delivery in 2019.

Regarding Cali, the 4% increase in inventory was driven by Zona America 1 building's completion, with 7,000 m² of corporate area. It worth noting that no significant variations are projected in the city's inventory in 2019; however, the Zona America project –towards the south of the city–, aims at becoming the first free trade zone focused on services and technology and its long-term goal is to house 18 office buildings.

The average vacancy for these four cities rose from 9.8% in June 2016 to 10.9% in June 2017, equivalent to 357,000 m². This corresponds to an increase in the vacancy metric exceeding 11%. Medellin was the city with the greatest increase in vacancies, compared to the previous year, rising from 5.6% to 9.3% as new offers entered the market. With respect to Bogota D.C. and Cali, the vacancy varied 6% and 11%, respectively. Finally, Barranquilla remained stable. The graph below –prepared by the Real Estate Manager, based on Colliers International Office Market Report 2018 Q4– shows the office sector performance in the main cities:

The average market vacancy in corporate assets was 11.8%, equivalent to 449,000 m². Compared to the same period in 2017, vacancies in the four cities decreased by 0.3%.

For several years Barranquilla has been showing oversupply levels in the category, particularly in 2018 when the vacancy closed at 29% given the new supply of buildings such as Centro Empresarial Atlantico and Centro Empresarial Buenavista. These buildings continue to show a high percentage of availability and low absorption.

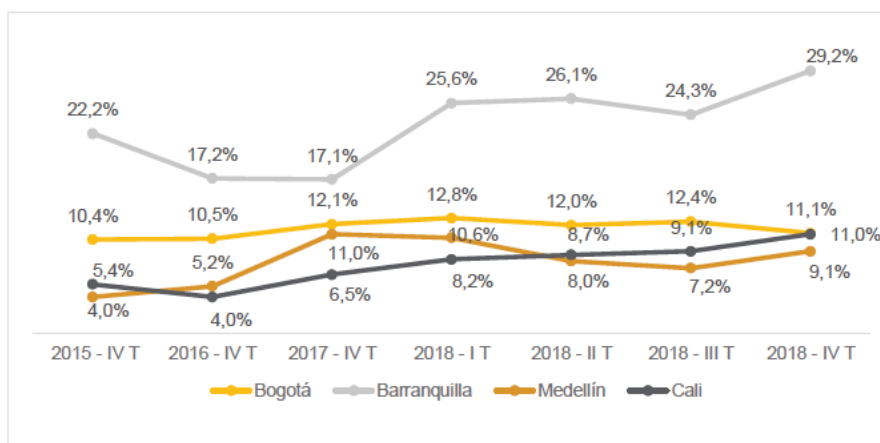

In Cali, vacancy rose from 6.5% to 11% as new buildings such as Word Trade Center, Torre Centenario Centro Empresarial, and ZF Towers Versalles in the north of the city increased supply.

On the other hand, vacancy decreased by 1% in Bogota, compared to the previous year, mainly as a result of the occupation of large spaces by coworking, government, and outsourcing companies (BPO).

Finally, Medellín was the city with the greatest vacancy reduction —2%— dropping from 11% to 9%, due to the city’s rapid absorption of the new supply for Class A buildings.

The following graph —prepared by the Real Estate Manager, based on Colliers International Office Market Report 2018 Q4— shows the office sector’s vacancy performance in the main cities:

Offices' Vacancy Performance in the Four Main Cities, in 2018

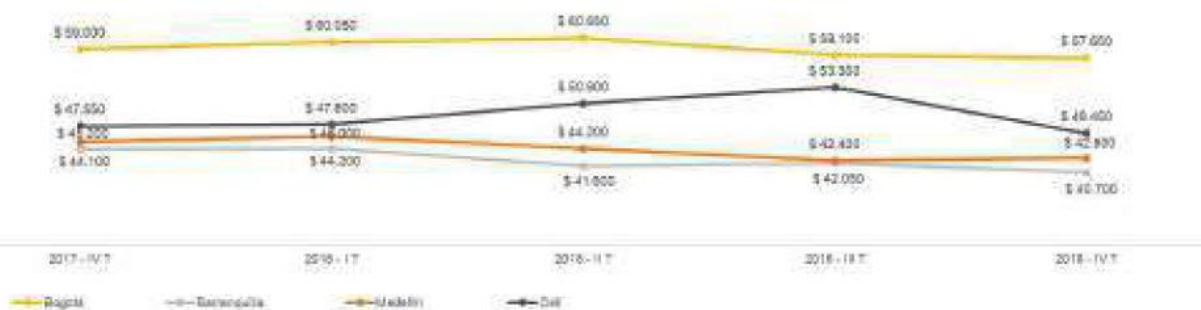

In relation to market prices, the four main cities in general showed a decrease in this variable, equivalent to a negative 4% variation compared to the end of 2017. Given Barranquilla high vacancy levels, this was the city with the greatest price variation, registering a drop of 8%. In Medellin, prices decreased by 5% compared to the end of the previous year, as a result of the demand's displacement toward Class A buildings, which forced prices downwards in the spaces available in Class B buildings.

Bogota D.C. has the highest values per square meter in the country, with an average of COP 57,650. These prices showed a downward 1% correction compared to the same month of the previous year.

On the other hand, office prices decreased by 1% in Cali, compared to the end of 2017. However, during the second and third quarters of the year rental prices increased in Cali as new Class A buildings entered the inventory.

The following graph –prepared by the Real Estate Manager, based on Colliers International Office Market Report 2018 Q4– shows the office sector's market prices performance in the main cities:

III. MARKET: PERFORMANCE OF THE REAL ESTATE MARKET FOR SHOPPING CENTERS IN COLOMBIA

According to the International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC), shopping centers may be classified into the following categories; however, such categories may vary depending on the country and/or the market assessed. The following is ICSC’s classification:

- Neighborhood centers: Have an average leasable area between 3,000 and 10,000 m² and are characterized for having a supermarket in their premises.
- Community centers: Have an average leasable area between 10,000 and 40,000 m² and may have department stores, fashion stores, supermarkets, and/or specialized stores.
- Regional centers: Have a leasable area between 40,000 and 80,000 m² and are characterized by generating massive trade and having more than one department store, fashion stores, supermarkets, and/or specialized stores.
- Super-regional centers: Are characterized for having a leasable area beyond 80,000 m², massive trade, and more than one department store, fashion stores, supermarkets, and/or specialized stores.

Shopping Centers

The Manager prepared the information below based on the end of 2018 market studies, which the Manager contracted with La Galeria Inmobiliaria.

The analysis submitted in January 2019 by La Galeria Inmobiliaria —a company with over 20 years of experience in the real estate sector and database of 174 shopping centers in different areas of the country—, reported at the end of the third quarter of 2018 more than 3.3 million m2 of leasable area in the main 4 cities’ shopping centers, showing a 7.4% growth compared to the same period in 2017. This resulted from the entry into operation of four new shopping centers, among which Viva Envigado in Medellin, with 105,000 m2, stand out as the largest shopping center in the country. In Bogota, Gran Plaza Ensueño and Plaza Claro were opened, totaling 75,000 m2. Additionally, the La Central, De Moda Outlet and Plaza Arrayanes shopping centers opened in the city of Medellin, and Carnaval shopping center in Barranquilla.

Similarly, according to La Galeria Inmobiliaria’s reports for 2019, nine new projects are expected to open in the 4 main cities of the country during the second half of the year, corresponding to more than 333,000 m2. In Bogota, 145,000 m2 are expected to enter the market, concentrated in the Paseo Villa del Rio and El Eden’s 1st Stage. In Barranquilla a new supply for 122,000 m2 is expected, distributed in Alegra’s projects, Mall Plaza, Plaza Campestre, and Plaza 63’s expansions. Cali will have two new Marcas Mall and Cosmocentro 360 projects totaling 57,000 m2. Finally, 9,000 m2 are projected to enter the market in Medellin with Pradera del Sur Shopping Center’s opening.

The graph below —prepared by the Real Estate Manager, based on La Galeria Inmobiliaria’s "Commercial Presentation 01-19"— shows the performance of the square meters built in the main cities for the commercial category in 2018:

The shopping centers’ vacancy closed the third quarter of 2018 at 12.3% and with 409,000 m2 available. Compared to the same period of the previous year, the square meters available increased by 73,000 m2.

According to La Galeria Inmobiliaria, vacancies generally increased in in the four main cities of the country. In Barranquilla, the physical vacancy’s increase was 5.4%, explained by Carnaval shopping center’s opening, which marked a 59% vacancy. In Bogota, vacancy increased by 2%, translating into 45,000 m2, explained by new supply in the market such as Plaza Ensueño and Plaza Claro shopping centers, which registered a 33% vacancy. Medellin’s case was similar, as new shopping significantly increased the supply of square meters, leading the commercial category to register a 10.4% vacancy. In Cali, the vacancy did not show any major changes, although it increased by 3,000 m2 or 0.8%, translating into 5,000 m2.

The following graph –prepared by the Real Estate Manager, based on La Galeria Inmobiliaria's "Commercial Presentation 01-19"– shows the vacancy's performance in the main cities for the commercial category in 2018:

The average price per square meter in the four main cities of the country was COP 99,735, increasing by 14% compared to the same period of 2017. In the case of Medellín, the price per square meter increased by 24%, mostly due to the new supply in shopping centers such as Viva Envigado, La Central, and Plaza Arrayanes which, given their location and high demand, showed an average price per square meter of COP 154,032, driving up the average rental price in the city's shopping centers.

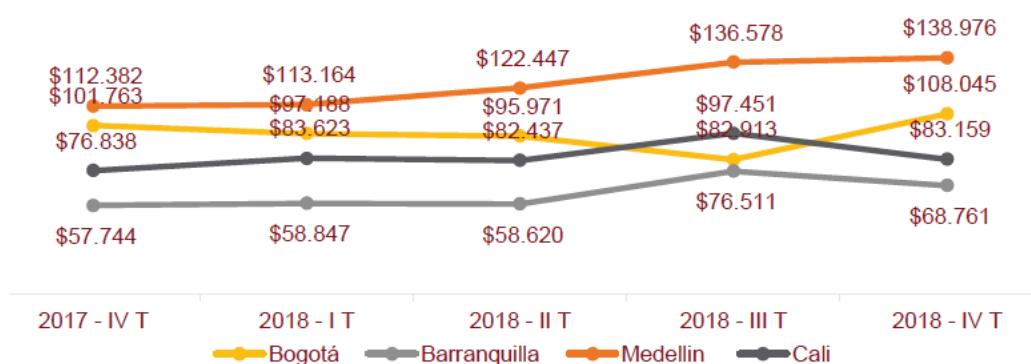

Likewise, prices per square meter in Barranquilla increased by 19% as a result of the demand's surge in the Super Regionales shopping centers, evidenced by the vacancy's drop in the city.

On the other hand, the average price in Bogota increased by 6%, reaching COP 108,045.

Finally, prices per square meter in Cali reached on average COP 83,159 per square meter, increasing 8% with respect to the previous year, due to the new available spaces in shopping centers such as Unicentro and Chipichape that marked the prices per square meter around COP 150,000.

IV. PERFORMANCE OF THE REAL ESTATE MARKET FOR WAREHOUSES IN COLOMBIA

Based on the information and statistics collected by Colliers International, below is an executive summary of the Industrial market by the end of 2018. To standardize the analysis, it is important be clear on the criteria used for its classification:

Industrial Park: Is the geographically limited area specially designed to establish industrial buildings with suitable location, infrastructure, equipment, and services conditions and a permanent management for their operation. Pursues the ordering of industrial settlements and the deconcentration of urban and suburban areas through an appropriate use of the land, the provision of suitable conditions for the industry to operate efficiently, and the fostering of creativity and productivity within a comfortable environment.

Industrial Facility: Is the physical facility or building designed and built to carry out the industrial activities of production, transformation, manufacture, assembly, industrial processes, storage, and distribution.

Storage Warehouse: Physical facility whose sole purpose is the storage of products.

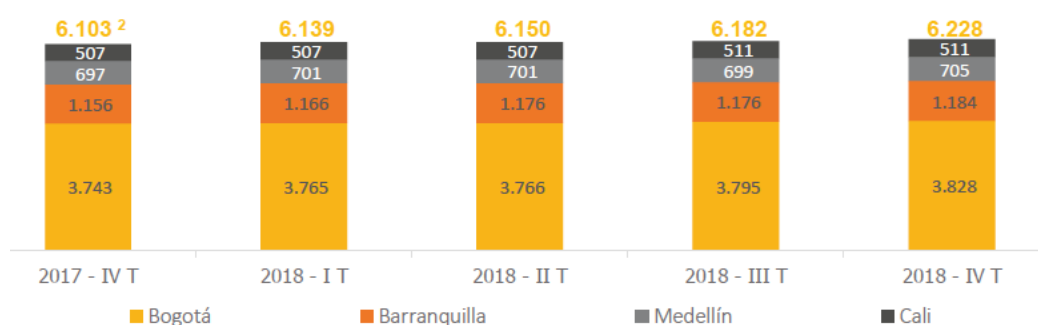

Warehouses

The Manager prepared the information below based on the end of 2018 market studies, which the Manager contracted with La Galeria Inmobiliaria.

Based on Colliers International's studies, the inventory of warehouses in the four main cities of the country as of December 2018 stood at 6.2 million m², representing a 2.0% increase compared to the same period of the year before. The cities with the greatest dynamism were Bogota and its neighboring areas, and Barranquilla. Bogota, because several industrial parks such as Interpark, Logika Siberia and Zol-Funza started operations, and Barranquilla given Hada International's warehouse expansion in the La Cayena Free Trade Zone (an asset owned by PEI) and Zilog and Las Americas industrial parks start of operations.

At the end of 2018, Bogota D.C. and its neighboring areas closed the year with an inventory of 3.8 million m² that represent a 2% increase equivalent to 85,000 m². Barranquilla, on the other hand, increased its inventory by 28,000 m², followed by Medellin with 8,000 m² and, finally, Cali which grew 1%, equivalent to 5,000 m².

A significant increase is estimated in three of the main cities of the country for 2019. In Barranquilla, an important increase of the inventory is expected as certain projects will be completed, particularly BTS warehouses that would contribute more than 944,000 m². A similar case occurs in Bogota and its neighboring areas, where an inventory increase is expected from a number of BTS warehouses in 2019 and the consolidation of industrial parks in neighbor municipalities to the capital. Similarly, Medellin is expected to experience the same dynamics considering that industrial parks such as Qbox, Quality Center, and Parque Industrial Fote, among others, will begin to operate. Finally, a lower growth is expected for Cali, compared to other cities, as few construction projects are being developed in the region. The graph below –prepared by the Real Estate Manager, based on Colliers International Office Market Report 2018 Q4– shows the warehouse sector's performance in the main cities:

Source: Colliers International Office Market Report 2018 Q4 - Calculations: PEI ASSET MANAGEMENT S.A.S.

Regarding vacancy, the warehouse average was 14.2%, equivalent to 881,000 m². A comparison of this figure with 2017, lead to the conclusion that vacant meters increased by 5,000 m².

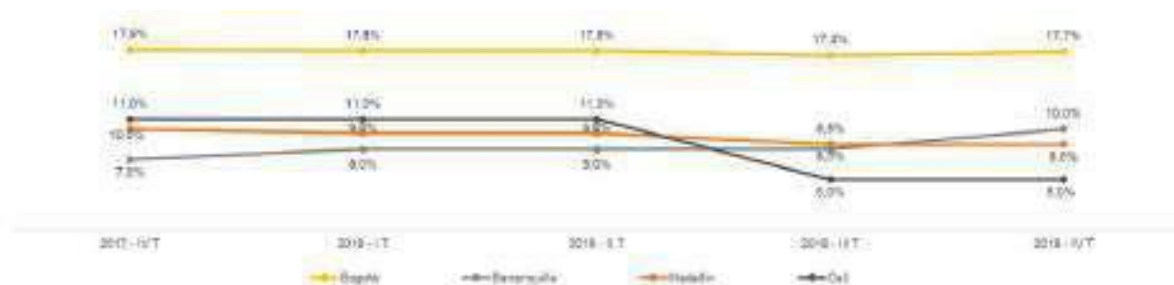

At the city level, the highest vacancy reduction was in Cali, where the metric decreased by 6% compared to the previous year, driven by the entry of companies mainly focused on the food sector in the region, which have occupied the available space. Similarly, Medellin registered a 1.5% reduction of the vacancy compared to the end of 2017, resulting from an increased demand, particularly from auto-parts import companies and businesses in the food, logistics, and fabrics sectors.

In Bogota and its neighboring areas, vacancy levels stand at 17.7%, mainly driven by the migration toward warehouses with better specifications and tailor-made distribution centers adapted to the companies' particular needs.

Barranquilla's vacancy increased by 3% compared to the end of 2017. This increase resulted from a greater supply in the different sectors of the city, such as industrial parks like Parque Industrial Las Americas and Parque Industrial de Malambo-PIMSA.

Based on the data published by the Monthly Manufacturing Survey published by DANE in November 2017¹⁵, a positive 4.7% annual variation in real production and a 4.8% increase of the industrial sector's sales by the end of 2018 seem to indicate a positive recovery of the industrial sector. This, in turn, seems to suggest an improvement of the economy and a good macroeconomic outlook at the end of 2018. Therefore, it is possible to expect in 2019 a reduction of the oversupply in the warehouses inventory for both industrial park projects and built to suit (BTS) warehouses.

In general terms, the average market prices in the Warehouse category decreased by 3%. In the case of Bogota and its neighboring areas, the average value per m² (COP 13,950) decreased 9% compared to the same period of the previous year, explained by the high vacancy levels that the category shows in different corridors. Cali shows a 6% reduction in the average rental rate, due to a reduction of availability for Trade Zones, while Class B warehouses' availability increased by 1%, driving the market prices down. Finally, the 2% market prices reduction in Medellín is explained by the Free Trade Zones' price adjustment resulting from extended availability periods. A similar case happened with Class A+ warehouses. In Barranquilla the average lease rate has increased by 3% compared to the end of the fourth quarter of 2017, mainly driven by the supply of properties with better specifications in the Barranquilla Free Trade Zone and in Class A+ warehouses.

IV. MARKET: PERFORMANCE OF THE REAL ESTATE MARKET FOR UNIVERSITY RESIDENCES IN COLOMBIA

According to the Ministry of Education’s information, 4.689.279 students are enrolled at the undergraduate and graduate levels in Colombia,¹⁶ with 52% located in the city of Bogota D.C. This underlines the city’s need and potential to host a business model for university residences. Additionally, the numerous benefits that living in university residences brings has been demonstrated, among them, networking and an improvement of academic performance, which help to reduce student dropout during the first semesters. Nonetheless, this is a completely new category in the Colombian market that poses challenges for all: developers, investors, operators, and, of course, the users.

In 2018, the inventory of rooms in university residences of Bogota grew more than 28% given the new supply by LivinnX and Esstudia.

Bogota’s city center concentrates 95% of the university residences’ supply due to their proximity to universities such as Los Andes, Rosario, Externado, and Jorge Tadeo Lozano, which amount to 116.212¹⁷ students enrolled in their different programs. Universidad de los Andes contributes 40% of the sample.

Because as of the publication date of this Prospectus, PEI has no market studies suppliers for university residences in Colombia, the Manager calculated the information below based on data directly collected by the Operator of CityU’s university residences.

Inventory of University Residences' Rooms in Bogota

PEI ASSET MANAGEMENT S.A.S.'s calculations based on information directly collected by the operator of the CityU's university residences.

Additionally, according to data provided by the operator of CityU's university residences, there are currently 5 projects for sale in their development stage in Bogota, focused on studio apartments or student housing, which could be substitutes for CityU and will represent a new supply of over 1,540 rooms. La Quinta (2020), Torre Barcelona in Bogota (2019) and Chia (2021), 33DC (2023), Saint Pierre, and Davinci are among the outstanding projects.

In terms of price, according to data provided by the operator of CityU's university residences, the rental rates for university housing located in the city center, as of December 31, 2018, ranged between COP 900,000 and COP 2.8 million, depending on the type of room and the services requested. In the case of CityU and Livinn, the price difference responds to the variety of accommodations offered by each, which range from single to quadruple rooms. In the case of Estudia, on the other hand, the price variation is explained by the services requested, as this residence only offered single accommodations. The following graph shows the prices' performance in 2018:

TRANSFER OF SECURITIES FROM THE SECONDARY MARKET TO THE PRIMARY MARKET

Through official letter 2006013931 of March 30, 2006, the Financial Superintendency of Colombia authorized the registration of the Securities under the Issuance Program with the Securities and Issuers National Registry ("SINR") and the public offering's registration in the secondary market.

The Investors General Assembly held on May 7, 2009, approved an amendment to the Program's conditions, authorizing the transfer of the registered Securities from the secondary market to the primary market, in accordance with Article 5.2.3.1.2 of Decree 2555, with the Superintendency's prior authorization. This decision is recorded in Minute No. 2 of the Trust's Investors General Assembly.

Under Decree 2555, the secondary market is understood as that where only professional investors can participate.

The primary market, on the other hand, is made up by the general public, which includes pension and cesantias funds. The transfer of the securities from the secondary market to the primary market increased the securities' liquidity as a result of its increased tradability due to the larger spectrum of recipients, which was initially limited to professional investors.

With the Securities transfer to the primary market, the Issuer remained being subject to the same legal provisions on relevant information that it was subjected to in the secondary market. However, the requirements are different, and some may be more stringent because the recipient is the general public and not solely professional investors.

Therefore, Investors acquire a proportional right or aliquot in the Trust, equivalent to the result of dividing the number of Securities acquired by the total number of outstanding Securities of the Issuance Program.

The Securities shall be freely tradeable in the BVC and Investors will be able to trade them directly or through the BVC.

1.6 RATING OF THE ISSUANCE PROGRAM'S SECURITIES

BRC Investor Services S.A. awarded an "i-AAA" (Triple A) rating to the Issuance Program. The rating awarded considers PEI and its Manager's positive aspects.

Anyhow, the Issuance Program's rating will be updated each time a new Tranche is issued. The Securities under the different Tranches of the Issuance Program will have the same rating because they shall be backed by all the assets making up the Trust.

The complete rating report shall be delivered to the Superintendency and may be consulted in such entity's records and its website (www.superfinanciera.gov.co), clicking on "relevant information".

1.7 FINANCIAL CONDITIONS OF THE ISSUANCE PROGRAM

17.1. Amount

The Issuance Program has a global amount of up to five billion pesos (COP 5,000,000,000,000) Colombian legal tender, which may be expanded, prior the relevant authorizations.

The global amount's increase may be applied for once placed in full or at least on a fifty percent (50%), provided that the offering's authorization term is in force.

1.7.2. Type of Security

The Trust shall issue Estrategias Inmobiliarias Equity Securities (the "PEI Securities"). The Issuance Program will only have one type of equity securities, which are fungible, so all of them shall have the exact same rights, regardless of the Tranche under which they are issued. Thus, Investors acquire a proportional right or aliquot in the Trust, equivalent to the result of dividing the number of Securities owned by the Investor by the total number of outstanding Securities of the Issuance Program.

1.7.3. Par Value and Minimum Investment

The Securities will be denominated in Colombian legal tender and shall be issued in multiples of one million five hundred seventy-two thousand seven hundred sixty-five pesos (COP 1,571,765) Colombian legal tender. The minimum investment in the primary market and the minimum trade in the secondary market shall be one (1) Security.

1.7.4. Subscription Price

The subscription price of any Securities under new Tranches will be calculated according to the procedure established in subparagraph 1.7.6 (2) of this Prospectus and shall be published in the relevant public offering notice.

1.7.5. Number of Securities to Issue

Shall result from dividing the authorized amount of the Tranche by the subscription price of the authorized Securities.

1.7.6. Issuance of New Tranches

The price and number conditions of the Securities under a New Tranche Issuance, in order to maintain a fair and proper ratio between the Investors that subscribe the new Tranche and the Trust's existing Investors, shall be determined by the following procedure:

1. Trust's Value for Subsequent Issues: The first step to determine the conditions of a new Tranche is to estimate the Trust's Value for Subsequent Issues on the business day immediately prior to the publication date of the relevant Tranche's offering notice, as provided for in this section.

The Trust's Value for Subsequent Issues shall be determined by the Advisory Committee, considering the following criteria and any others applicable under recognized appraisal methods:

- The Trust's Real Estate Assets' and other assets' value.
 - The projection of future income from current Lease Agreements, including their term conditions, lease fee, and other relevant characteristics.
 - The Real Estate Assets expected to be acquired with the proceeds of the new issue and the conditions established in connection with the relevant Lease Agreements.
 - Market conditions and Investors' demand for the Securities.
2. Subscription Price: Once the Trust's Value for Subsequent Issues is calculated, as described in the above paragraph, the subscription price may be calculated by dividing this value by the number of Securities outstanding on the business day immediately prior to the relevant Tranche's notice publication date.
Consequently, the subscription price of the Securities under the new Tranche will be the par value plus a premium or a discount.
3. Number of Securities to be Issued: Once the subscription price is determined, the number of Securities corresponding to the new Tranche will be calculated by dividing the amount to place under the relevant Tranche by the subscription price determined in the above subparagraph.

The result of the method described to determine the Trust's Value for Subsequent Issues allows establishing an adequate ratio between all the Investors, so that the subscription price for the new Tranche Investors is equivalent to the existing Investors' Security value.

Additionally, notwithstanding the above, any Investors existing before a new Tranche Issuance shall have preemption rights on the new Tranche Securities, as described in subparagraph 1.7.9 of this Prospectus. This preemption right allows them to opt not to dilute their interest in the Trust with the Issuance of new Tranches.

The Issuance of new Tranches leads to an increase of both the Securities outstanding and the Trust through the new assets subject to securitization which, together with the total assets already existing, shall proportionally back up all the Securities outstanding under all Tranches.

As indicated above, once the Securities under a new Tranche are placed, such Securities are fungible with the others issued and outstanding. Therefore, all Securities are backed up by all the assets of the Trust. All the securities outstanding have the same rights and participate pro rata, regardless of any circumstances that may affect the Trust, the Real Estate Assets, or other assets acquired in the Trust's ordinary course of business or new issues, including, among others, the following:

- The conditions under which the Real Estate Assets may be leased more favorably or unfavorably than other Real Estate Assets.
- The fulfillment or breach of one or more of the Lease Agreements and changes in the credit risk of one or several of the Lease Agreements.
- The possibility that one or more of the Real Estate Assets may not be leased at any given time or under particular conditions.
- The absolute or percentage variation with respect to the costs, expenses, and taxes associated with one or more of the Real Estate Assets or the process in general, and for whatever reason.
- The sale of one or more specific Real Estate Assets, regardless of the opportunity or conditions of the relevant sale.
- The original conditions and variations of the Trust's Financial Indebtedness, regardless of the time or circumstances when the same was acquired.
- One, some, or all of the Real Estate Assets' destruction or total or partial impairment thereof, whether significant or not.
- Regulatory risks or changes to the legal provisions or their interpretation, affecting either positively or negatively the profitability associated with one, some, or all of the Real Estate Assets.
- Litigations, claims, complaints involving one, some, or all of the Real Estate Assets.
- In general, any other negative or positive circumstance, temporary or permanent, directly or indirectly affecting one or more of the Trust's assets or that may possibly or likely materially affect, adversely or not, the securitization process or the Trust's assets.

1.7.7. Disposals and Transfers

Disposals and transfers of the rights recorded in the relevant deposit accounts corresponding to the Securities, may only incorporate complete security units.

1.7.8. Term

The Securities shall be valid from each Tranche's Issue Date until the Trust's liquidation date. Therefore, the Securities' maximum redemption term may not exceed the Trust Agreement's term, that is, ninety-nine (99) years counted as of its execution, extendable with the parties' consent.

1.7.9. Proportion and Form of the Offering

1. First Round Without Payment in Kind. - Preemption Right: Those Investors appearing in DECEVAL's entries record as owners of the Trust Securities on the publication date of the relevant public offering notice, will be entitled to preferentially subscribe, in the First Round Without Payment in Kind, the Securities under the new Tranche, prorata to the number of Securities they own on such date from the total number of Securities outstanding on such date.

Each one of the Investors may preferentially subscribe a maximum number of Securities equivalent to the whole number, without decimals approximation, resulting from multiplying: (i) The number of Securities owned by the Investor on the publication date of the relevant public offering notice; times (ii) A factor resulting from dividing (a) The number of Securities under the relevant Tranche, by (b) The number of Securities outstanding on the publication date of the relevant public offering notice.

If any fractions result after applying the aforementioned proportion, such fractions may be totally or partially traded as of the Issue Date and during the period established for such purpose in the relevant public offering notice's publication date.

Preemption Rights may be totally or partially traded, only from the relevant Tranche's Issue Date. Likewise, any fractions resulting from the calculations made, limited to the first two decimals without approximations, may be traded by the Investors within the term established for such purpose in the relevant public offering notice; however, the subscription will be for a whole number of Securities.

The Preemption Rights' assignment shall be made as provided for in the public offering notice, as follows:

1. Through the Trust Company, with the requirements established in the public offering notice; or
2. Through the Securities Direct Depositor (i) Through the BVC's transactional systems, in a whole number of Preemption Rights or fractions of Preemption Rights, in accordance with the operating procedure established in the normative bulletin issued by BVC for this purpose; and (ii) Through the OTC market, only for fractions of the Preemption Rights.

Compliance will abide by the BVC's clearing and settlement mechanisms.

The maximum term established for the Preemption Rights' assignment shall comply with the technical requirements of the BVC's clearing and settlement mechanisms.

The Preemption Rights' special conditions shall be set in the relevant public offering notices and will provide, at least, the term to exercise the right, the manner how it shall be exercised, the subscription factor, and the Securities' subscription price for any subscribers exercising their Preemption Rights.

The Investors General Assembly may approve the Issuance of Tranches not subject to the Preemption Rights described in this subparagraph, in accordance with this Prospectus.

Any Securities not acquired in the First Round Without Payment in Kind, may be subscribed by the general public in the Second Round Without Payment in Kind. In any case, those Investors participating in the First Round Without Payment in Kind will only receive the Securities that they expressly agreed to acquire in that round; this, notwithstanding their decision to participate in the Second Round Without Payment in Kind.

2. Second Round Without Payment in Kind - Free Placement: Any Securities not subscribed in the First Round Without Payment in Kind will be available for free subscription by the Investors in general, on the business day immediately following the First Round Without Payment in Kind's expiration, in accordance with that provided for in the relevant offering notice, at the same price and payment conditions established for the First Round Without Payment in Kind.

1.7.10. Proportion, Form of the Offering, and Award Mechanism if there is Payment in Kind

If the Trust intends to acquire one or several properties or a part thereof, paying it/them with securities, this is, that the third parties owning the property, properties, or part thereof that the Trust will acquire under the relevant Tranche will pay in kind for the Securities to be subscribed, the proportion and form of the Offer shall be the following:

1. First Round with Payment in Kind: The first round will be directed to the Determined Person, who shall pay the Securities by transferring the ownership of the properties that the Trust will acquire in furtherance of the relevant Tranche, in accordance with the payment terms under the public offering notice.

The number of Securities paid in kind shall correspond to a proportion of the price of the properties or part thereof that will be delivered as part of the Securities payment, allowing the subscription of a whole number of Securities. In no case shall the subscription be made for a number of Securities that is not whole.

Notwithstanding the special conditions established in the relevant public offering notices, the procedure below shall be followed to subscribe the Securities under the Payment in Kind modality:

1. The Trust and the Determined Person will execute a promise of purchase sale agreement for the property to be transferred to the Trust under the Payment in Kind modality. The promise of purchase and sale agreement shall stipulate that a pledge in favor of the Trust shall be granted on the Securities that the Determined Person receives as part of the property's price.

2. Publication of the relevant public offering notice will be made following the requirements provided in the law or this Prospectus and shall contain, at least:
 - a. The term for the ownership transfer of the property or part thereof, delivered as part of the Securities payment;
 - b. The manner how the Payment in Kind must be made; and
 - c. The Securities' subscription price, for those paying them in kind, which shall be calculated in accordance with that provided for in subparagraph 1.7.6.
3. The Determined Person, through its direct centror, shall accept the Trust's offering under the terms established in the public offering notice.
4. On the day established in the relevant offering notice to carry out the First Round with Payment in Kind, the Determined Person shall subscribe and deliver to the Management Agent, as spokesperson for the Trust, the pledge agreement on the Securities acquired thereby, to ensure full compliance with the agreements under the promise of purchase and sale contract.
5. Upon the Trust's receipt, through the Management Agent, of: (i) The Securities public offering acceptance; (ii) The executed pledge agreement; and (iii) Verification that the conditions set forth in the relevant public offering notice are complied with, the Trust, through the Management Agent, shall order DECEVAL to issue the Securities and record the relevant entry in favor of the Determined Person.
6. On the same day that the Securities are issued in favor of the Determined Person, the direct depositor of the Determined Person will order DECEVAL to record the pledge on the Securities acquired by the Determined Person, which will imply their blocking. The Securities will be blocked until the public deed with the property's sale or part thereof to the Trust, is recorded. The Securities' blocking shall be made under DECEVAL's rules.
7. The Determined Person will have the term established in the relevant offering notice to transfer the property's ownership. Within the ten (10) business days following the Trust's recording as owner under the property's titleship document, the Trust, through the Management Agent, shall deliver the pledge certificate issued by DECEVAL, duly signed and authorizing the pledge's lifting, to the Determined Person's direct depositor.
8. Within the three (3) business days following the date that the Determined Person's direct depository receives the pledge certificate, duly signed by the Trust, the Determined Person's direct depositor shall deliver a communication to DECEVAL requesting the pledge's lifting.

The certificate issued by DECEVAL shall be enclosed to such communication and will be duly signed by the Trust.

Settlement of the offerings contemplating the Payment in Kind shall be made under the payment-free transactions modality. Likewise, the purchase of properties with Securities will be subject to the conditions established in subparagraph 2.3.6 of the Prospectus.

Placement of any Securities not subscribed in the First Round with Payment in Kind shall be made through the Placing Agents, in accordance with subparagraph 1.8 of the Prospectus. The award of any Securities not subscribed in the First Round with Payment in Kind shall be made in accordance with subparagraph 1.8.1 of the Prospectus and the relevant public offering notice.

The Trust Company, as spokesperson for the Trust, shall inform to the BVC the amount of any Securities not subscribed in the First Round with Payment in Kind, in accordance with the terms of the relevant public offering notice.

2. Second Round with Payment in Kind - Preemption Right: Investors appearing in DECEVAL's entries record as owners of the Trust Securities on the publication date of the relevant public offering notice, will be entitled to preferentially subscribe, in the Second Round with Payment in Kind, the Securities of the new Tranche not subscribed under the First Round with Payment in Kind, in the same proportion of the number of Securities they own on such date from to the total number of Securities outstanding on such date. Each one of the Investors may preferentially subscribe a maximum number of Securities equivalent to the whole number resulting from multiplying: (i) The number of Securities owned by the Investor on the publication date of the relevant public offering notice, times (ii) A factor resulting from dividing (a) The number of Securities under the relevant Tranche that were not subscribed on the First Round With Payment in Kind, by (b) The number of Securities outstanding on the publication date of the relevant public offering notice.

If any fractions result after applying the aforementioned proportion, such fractions may be totally or partially traded as of the Issue Date and during the period established for such purpose in the relevant public offering notice.

Preemption Rights may be totally or partially traded, only from the relevant Tranche's Issue Date. Likewise, any fractions resulting from the calculations made, may be traded by the Investors within the term established for such purpose in the public offering notice; however, the subscription will be for a whole number of Securities.

The Preemption Rights' assignment shall be made as provided for in the public offering notice, as follows:

1. Through the Trust Company, with the requirements established in the public offering notice; or

2. Through the Securities' Direct Depositor (i) through the BVC's transactional systems, in a whole number of Preemption Rights, in accordance with the operating procedure established in the normative bulletin issued by BVC for this purpose; (ii) Through the OTC market, only for fractions of the Preemption Rights; or (iii) If this is not possible, for a whole number or fractions of the Preemption Rights, through the transactional systems of the BVC, in accordance with the operating procedure established in the normative bulletin issued for this purpose by the BVC.

Compliance will be made in accordance with the BVC's clearing and settlement mechanisms.

The maximum term established for the assignment of Preemption Right will comply with the technical requirements under the BVC's clearing and settlement mechanisms.

The Preemption Rights' special conditions shall be set in the relevant public offering notices and will provide, at least, the term to exercise the right, the manner how it shall be exercised, the subscription factor, and the subscription price of the Securities for any subscribers exercising their Preemption Rights. The Investors General Assembly may approve the Issuance of Tranches not subject to the Preemption Rights described in this subparagraph, in accordance with this Prospectus. Any Securities not acquired in the Second Round with Payment in Kind, may be subscribed by the general public in the Third Round. In any case, those Investors participating in the Second Round with Payment in Kind shall only receive the Securities that they expressly agreed to acquire in that round; this, notwithstanding their decision to participate in the Third Round.

3. Third Round - Free Placement: Any Securities not subscribed in the First Round with Payment in Kind or the Second Round with Payment in Kind, shall be available for free subscription by the Investors in general, on the business day immediately following the Second Round with Payment in Kind's expiration, in accordance with the provisions of the relevant offering notice, at the same price and payment conditions established for the Second Round with Payment in Kind.

Paragraph One. In the Tranches where Payments in kind will not be made, the offering shall comply with subparagraph 1.7.9 of this Prospectus. Consequently, the Trust may pursue Issues where the Securities to be placed are paid: (i) Only in cash; and/or (ii) Part in cash and part in kind, as provided for in the Prospectus and the Trust Agreement.

Paragraph Two. The price of the Securities in the three (3) rounds will be the same and shall be determined according to subparagraph 1.7.6 of this Prospectus.

1.7.11. Reacquisition of Securities

(a) Reacquisition of Securities at the Investors' Option

Investors may offer their Securities to the Trust, for it to reacquire them, according to the following procedure:

Each Investor may sell to the Trust, on a yearly basis, up to ten percent (10%) of the Securities acquired and maintained for a period exceeding ten (10) consecutive and uninterrupted years, counted as of their Acquisition Date ("Reacquirable Securities").

Reacquisition may only incorporate complete units of securities.

The reacquisition value shall correspond to the lesser between the Securities' value published by the Management Agent and their Market Value, prior a twenty percent (20%) deduction, by way of a discount (the "Reacquisition Value").

The Investor interested in the Trust's reacquisition of its Reacquirable Securities, shall deliver a written communication to the Management Agent offering the Re-acquirable Securities, at least one hundred and twenty (120) calendar days in advance to the proposed reacquisition date.

The Trust will repurchase the Re-acquirable Securities on April 15 of each year (or the next business day), in accordance with the terms provided for herein.

From the fifth (5th) year of its operation, the Trust shall annually allot the resources that the Advisory Committee deems necessary to reacquire the Reacquirable Securities (the "Reacquisition Fund").

If there is any a shortfall between the Reacquisition Fund and the Re-acquirable Securities' value in any given year, the Advisory Committee will instruct the Management Agent to allot the shortfall of the Trust's resources, if possible, prior to the reacquisition date. If it is not possible to provision all the resources, the Investors' General Ordinary Assembly shall adopt the appropriate measures to solve this situation.

In accordance with article 2, paragraph 2 of Act 964 of 2005, whenever the Trust reacquires Re-acquirable Securities, the provisions on the obligations derived from reacquired securities under Article 1724 of the Civil Code shall apply.

(b) Reacquisition at the Trust's Option

Considering the market conditions, among others, and based on the Advisory Committee's functions provided in clause 2 of subparagraph 2.5.2 of the Prospectus, the Trust may decide to reacquire Securities ("Reacquisition at the Trust's Option") for up to maximum 10% of the total number of

Placement Prospectus
Estrategias Inmobiliarias Trust

Securities issued and outstanding on the business day prior to the first Reacquisition at the Trust's Option (the "Maximum Reacquirable Securities at the Trust's Option").

The Maximum Reacquirable Securities at the Trust's Option will be increased by 10% of the Securities under any new issues.

Any Reacquisition transactions at the Trust's Option may be performed during the 1-year period following the first Reacquisition transaction at the Trust's Option, extendable by the Advisory Committee for successive 1-year periods. Within the relevant annual period, up to 3% of the Securities issued and outstanding may be reacquired, unless the Advisory Committee authorizes a higher amount for such annual period, in any case, within the Maximum Reacquirable Securities at the Trust's Option.

Reacquisition Transactions at the Trust's Option may not be carried out during the 15 days prior to the Distributable Cash Flow's distribution dates or the 15 days prior to any Issuance date.

Reacquisitions at the Trust's Option shall be performed through (i) The Colombian Stock Exchange's transactional systems or an independent mechanism, in any case, subject to the Colombian Stock Exchange's General Regulations and Sole Circular; and (ii) One or several transactions or orders until exhausting the relevant Reacquisition transaction's amount authorized by the Advisory Committee.

The price per reacquired security within the framework of the Reacquisition at the Trust's Option (the "Price for Reacquisition at the Trust's Option") will result from:

1. The higher value between: (i) The highest demand price existing upon entering the order; (ii) The last traded price prior to the reacquisition date setting the price; and (iii) The Valuation Price.

The Advisory Committee may authorize the value determined in this paragraph 1 to be multiplied by one plus the Adjustment Factor, abiding by the provisions under the operating manual for the Reacquisition at the Trust's Option. In no case shall the Adjustment Factor exceed 10%.

2. In the event that the Advisory Committee authorizes the use of the Adjustment Factor to carry out the Reacquisition at the Trust's Option, abiding by the operating manual's provisions, the adjustment factor (the "Adjustment Factor") shall result from the multiplication of:
 - a. One minus the result of the Valuation Price for the business day prior to the relevant reacquisition transaction's date, divided by the Maximum Price for the Reacquisition at the Trust's Option; and
 - b. One minus the division between the Valuation Price of the business day prior to the relevant reacquisition transaction's date and the Equity Value per Security.

Placement Prospectus
Estrategias Inmobiliarias Trust

For illustrative purposes, the determination of the Adjustment Factor refers to:

Valuation Price per Security = PX_{ValT}

Equity Value per Security = Val_{PatT}

Long-Term Debt's Cost for the Month Prior to the Reacquisition Date = Kd_{PortLP}

Reacquisition Transaction's Date = t

Maximum Price for Reacquisition at the Trust's Option

= $PX_{MaxRadqPA}$

$PX_{MaxRadqPA} = Val_{PatT\ t-1} * (1 - Kd_{PorLP})$

Adjustment Factor = FX_{Adj}

$$FX_{Adj} = \min \left\{ \begin{array}{l} 1 \\ \frac{1 - PX_{ValT\ t-1}}{PX_{MaxR\ adqPA}} * \frac{1 - PX_{ValT\ t-1}}{Val_{PatT\ t-1}} \end{array} \right\}$$

Highest demand price existing upon entering the order

= $PX_{dm\ t}$

Last traded price marking the price = PX_{uit}

Price for Reacquisition at the Trust's Option = PX_{RadqPA}

In no case shall the Price for Reacquisition at the Trust's Option be above the Maximum Price for Reacquisition at the Trust's Option.

The payment of the Price for Reacquisition at the Trust's Option shall be made using funds that individually or jointly correspond to: (i) The Distributable Cash Flow; (ii) Capital from the Disposal of Real Estate Assets; and/or (iii) Financial Indebtedness. If the funds come from Financial Indebtedness, they shall be amortizable, considering at least an annual amortization period and, in any case, will be within the Financial Indebtedness limits established in Section 2.3.4 of the Prospectus.

Notwithstanding that provided in the above paragraph, the Trust may annually provision any funds that the Advisory Committee deems necessary to carry out the Reacquisition at the Trust's Option.

The Distributable Cash used as to pay the Reacquisition at the Trust's Option shall not exceed 30% thereof.

Pursuant to Article 2 of paragraph 2 of Act 964 of 2005, on Securities reacquired under any Reacquisition at the Trust's Option, confusion shall operate in the terms of Article 172-1 of the Civil Code.

1.7.12. Securities' Yield

Because these are Equity Securities, they will not have a guaranteed return, which will rather depend on the performance of the Permitted Investments making up the Trust's Portfolio.

The Securities' yield shall come from the: (i) Appreciation of the Real Estate Assets making up the Trust; (ii) Appreciation of the other Permitted Investments of the Trust; (iii) Revenues from the Real Estate Asset Lease payments, Monthly Concession Amounts under the Trust's Real Estate

Assets concession contracts, Parking Spaces' Lease Fees, Parking Services, Entry Premiums, Sponsorships; (iv) Compensations from insurance; (v) Penalties payable by the tenants for the early termination of the Real Estate Assets' lease agreements; (vi) Sums payable by the tenants under the Lease Agreements; (vii) Revenues from the returns of these resources; and (viii) Monies received by the Trust in any capacity, once the relevant discounts are made under the Trust Agreement and with the periodicity established therein.

Given the real estate business's nature, it is necessary to establish metrics that adequately reflect the transactions and profitability of the Trust, as follows:

1. The operating flow (the "Operating Cash Flow") equivalent to the EBITDA less any interest from the Financial Indebtedness, plus the financial returns from Liquidity Surpluses.
2. The adjusted Operating Cash Flow (the "Adjusted Operating Cash Flow") corresponding to the Operating Cash Flow less the real estate assets investments and working capital.
3. The returns periodically distributed to the Investors (the "Distributable Cash Flow") result from subtracting the Reacquisition Fund's provision and the Financial Indebtedness's amortizations from the Adjusted Distributable Cash Flow, and adding thereto the new Financial Indebtedness and the Net Flow from any New Tranche Issues.

If any of the Trust's Real Estate Assets are sold, any proceeds therefrom shall be paid to investors as Distributable Cash Flow, if: (i) Following twelve (12) complete calendar months after the sale date, said proceeds have not been (a) Reinvested in Real Estate Assets that fulfill the Investment Policy's guidelines; (b) Used to pay the Financial Indebtedness; or (c) Used to pay the Price for Reacquisition at the Trust's Option or the price for the Securities Reacquisition transactions at the Investors' Option; (ii) The Trust is liquidated; or (iii) The Advisory Committee deems it appropriate considering profitability, market conditions, and convenience criteria.

The Distributable Cash Flow shall be distributed to the Investors as Trust Distributed Profits and, if possible, as a partial reimbursement of the initial investment, up to the amount deemed appropriate under the regulations and as long as, for tax purposes, the references in the tax regulations to the applicable accounting standards prior to the effective date of the International Financial Reporting Standards - IFRS- remain valid pursuant to article 165 of Act 1607 of 2012.

The difference between the Trust's Profit and the Trust' Distributable Profit shall be credited to the Trust's Retained Income.

If any of the Purchase and Sale Agreements cannot be perfected, the balance of the Issuance resources that would be destined to purchase the Real Estate Assets subject matter of such Purchase and Sale Agreements shall be used to purchase other Real Estate Assets within the following twelve (12) months, in line with the Investment Policy and the Advisory Committee's guidelines. These resources will remain in the Trust and shall not be the Investors' Distributable Cash Flow, save for the following events: (i) The relevant Real Estate Assets are not acquired within the previously twelve (12) months referred to; (ii) The Trust's liquidation; or (iii) The Advisory Committee deeming it appropriate after considering profitability, market conditions, and convenience criteria.

1.7.13. Distributable Cash Flow's Periodicity and Payment

The Trust Company, through DECEVAL, shall pay the Distributable Cash Flow to the Investors, pro rata to their interest in the Trust, as follows:

1. On the tenth business day of each month of February, the Distributable Cash Flow corresponding to the quarterly period between October 1 and December 31 of the previous year.
2. On the tenth business day of each month of May, the Distributable Cash Flow corresponding to the period between January 1 and March 31 of the relevant current year.
3. On the tenth business day of each month of August, the Distributable Cash Flow corresponding to the period between April 1 and June 30 of the relevant current year.
4. On the tenth business day of each month of November, the Distributable Cash Flow corresponding to the period between July 1 and September 30 of the relevant current year.
5. At any time, the Advisory Committee may extraordinarily approve the payment of the Distributable Cash Flow, the Distributable Cash Flow from Divestments, or the Adjusted Distributable Cash Flow.

1.8. PLACEMENT AND TRADING RULES

The Securities placement through the Issuance Program shall be carried out by one or more Placement Agents, through best efforts placement contracts. Placement Agents shall be in charge of the placement and marketing of the Securities issued under the Trust by the Management Agent. Additionally, the Placement Agents shall constantly review the market of the Securities issued by the Trust, to suggest any relevant modifications to the Issuance Program's orientation. With this goal in mind, the Advisory Committee shall designate the group of entities that will act as Placement Agents.

The Investors interested in acquiring the Securities, in order to participate in the placement process, shall deliver the Investor Enrollment form duly completed with its annexes, not later than at the time of the offering's acceptance, in accordance with the guidelines in Chapter VII, Title I, Part III of Basic Legal Circular 029 of 2014 of the Superintendency, which refers to the mechanisms to prevent and control money laundering.

1.8.1. Award Mechanism

The Trust Company, as spokesperson for the Trust, following the Advisory Committee's instructions shall inform in each Tranche's public offering notice the amount offered, any Placement Partial Amounts, and the Placement's Minimum Amount.

Award of the Securities shall be made by the entity established in the public offering notice, which may be the Trust Company or BVC, in accordance with the rules in the Prospectus, the public offering notice, and the operation instructions issued by BVC for this purpose. Notwithstanding the above, award of the Securities under the First Round with Payment in Kind shall be made pursuant to the procedure described in subparagraph 1.7.10 of the Prospectus.

The recipients of the offer shall submit their bids to the relevant Placement Agent through any verifiable means, stating the amount bided.

The recipients of the offer shall deliver the documents required by the Placement Agent under the provisions regulating its operation. Each of the offering's recipients, by merely submitting a bid, acknowledges that the number of Securities that can be awarded thereto may be less than the number of Securities bided for. The addresses and hours when the Placement Agents will be available shall be determined in the relevant public offering notice.

The recipient of the offer shall be informed if its bid is illegible and will be required to resubmit the bid. The time limit for retransmitting the bid shall adjust to that established under the relevant public offering notice for the submission of offering acceptances.

In the Second Round Without Payment in Kind and the Third Round - Free Placement, whenever the bids exceed the offering, the Securities award to the offerings recipients shall be made in order of arrival, following the special allocation rules under the offering notice, and in the terms provided in the operation instructions issued by BVC, subject to the minimum amounts established. If, as a result of the awarding mechanism, none of the submitted bids reaches the minimum amount established and, accordingly, cannot be awarded, or if all the securities offered are not awarded based on the award mechanism, the award shall be made following the procedure established in the public offering notice and BVC's operation instructions.

Whenever the Amount bid for is less than the Minimum Placement Amount: (i) The Securities' subscription agreements entered into shall be rescinded by virtue of the offering; and (ii) The effects for the Trust of any Preemption Rights' assignments shall become extinguished (including the assignments of fractions of the computations made, in accordance with each public offering notice's provisions), so the assignments made shall not affect the offerings of Securities under new offering notices. However, the Securities may be offered through a new public offering notice during the relevant Tranche's Placement Term.

Whenever the amount bid for is higher than the Placement Minimum Amount, but lower than the amount offered in the relevant offering notice, the Partial Placement Amounts established in the relevant offering notice may be awarded considering the following criteria:

- The Partial Placement Amount closest, but lower than the amount bid for shall be awarded, in accordance with the Partial Placement Amounts included in the public offering notice corresponding to each Tranche.
- The Securities' subscription agreements entered into shall be rescinded by virtue of the offerings exceeding the partial amount actually awarded.

Each Security's value shall be paid in full upon its subscription.

The results of the award shall be informed to the public by the awarding agent and each Placement Agent once the offering's validity expires and/or the Tranche is fully awarded.

1.11.1. Investors' Rights

All the Securities under the different Tranches of the Issuance Program are fungible and accordingly, afford the exact same rights, regardless of the Tranche under which they are issued. Therefore, Investors acquire a proportional right or aliquot in the Trust, equivalent to the result of dividing the number of Securities owned by the Investor by the total number of outstanding Securities under the Issuance Program.

The Issuance of new Tranches leads to an increase of both the outstanding Securities and the Trust, through the new securitized assets which, together with the totality of the existing assets, will proportionally back up all of the outstanding Securities under all the Tranches. Investors do not acquire a fixed-income security, but rather share the resulting profits or losses.

In addition to the rights provided for in other paragraphs of this Prospectus and the law, Investors

The Trust seeks to create a diversified real estate assets portfolio (the "Portfolio") offering low-volatility flows. This Portfolio's composition will be dynamic, depending on the opportunities identified in the market, and its aim will be to maximize the Investors returns while maintaining a moderate risk profile.

The Trust's operation will be based on the investment policy established below (the "Investment Policy"). The purpose of this policy is to set investment guidelines that minimize the Credit and Market Risks through a highly diversified Portfolio and permanent real estate and financial management.

The Trust will pursue a moderate risk profile by investing in assets with a reasonably high capacity to preserve the capital invested, such as the Permitted Investments described in the following subparagraph.

The Investment Policy's guidelines refer to the management of the Trust. If the Portfolio does not comply with these guidelines at any given time, the Advisory Committee will adopt the relevant measures to adjust it to the Investment Policy, provided that the circumstances at the time point to the adjustment's convenience and this is possible. The Trust may only invest in the following assets (the "Permitted Investments"):

A. Real Estate Assets

The Trust may invest in any commercial real estate assets that, in the Advisory Committee's opinion, have an attractive income-generation and/or appreciation potential in light of their location, access roads, security, finishings, functionality, and tenants (the "Real Estate Assets"):

1. Offices: Offices in buildings with high safety and quality specifications.
2. Hypermarkets: Commercial premises with a built-up area exceeding two thousand five hundred (2,500) m², devoted to commerce (retail and wholesale activities).

B. Other Assets

1. Trust Rights: Trust rights whose underlying assets are the Real Estate Assets.

As a prior step to the acquisition of trust rights by the Trust, the Manager must carry out a due diligence process on the underlying Real Estate Asset and the trust agreement originating the trust rights, as well as define the accounting policies applicable thereto in order to specify their submission and treatment within PEI's financial statements, and the share acquired in the relevant trust and/or underlying real estate assets.

Risks Associated with Investments in Trust Rights

The risks associated with the acquisition of trust rights are, in principle, the following:

- (i) Those derived from the underlying Real Estate Assets;
- (ii) Those derived from the business trust agreement's provisions originating the trust rights;
- (iii) Financial risk, understood as the likelihood of incurring in losses or a decreased investment return resulting from an interruption or reduction of the expected cash flows from the assets and rights making up the Trust (rents, dividends, and interests). Financial risk is mitigated through by properly structuring the assets' lease and exploitation contracts, so that any revenues therefrom remain stable over time;
- (iv) Trust manager's solvency risk, i.e., the Manager's defaults due to insolvency or an inefficient management of the revenues.

Specifically, the legal risks that may arise are the following:

- (i) Encumbrances on the trust rights;
- (ii) Flaws in the constitution of the trust, i.e., the legal requirements for the trust's existence and validity are not complied with, leading to the business trust agreement's non-existence, inefficaciousness, or absolute or relative nullity;
- (iii) The trustor's creditors going after the trust's assets, based on debts prior to the business trust's constitution; and
- (iv) Transfers of the trust rights to the Trust by a person other than their owner (property risk of the trust right).

Notwithstanding the above, the risks associated with the acquisition of Real Estate Assets, whether the acquisition refers to trust rights or their underlying assets directly, as mentioned above, are identified during the due diligence process and ownership titles study. Additionally, through the structuring of the relevant contracts, the necessary protection mechanisms are established in line with the risks identified.

2. The Liquidity Surpluses and the Operation and Reacquisition Funds' funds may be invested in Financial Assets and hedging instruments.

2.3.2. Investment Criteria

- Real Estate Assets shall concentrate in large cities (i.e., Bogota, Cali, and Medellin); however, if the Advisory Committee deems so appropriate, the Trust may invest in Real Estate Assets located in other cities.
- The Trust may invest in improvements and renovations of the Portfolio's assets, in order to maximize their profitability.
- The Trust may invest in Real Estate Assets only when the Contract(s) executed are leases, concessions, or any others susceptible of generating income from the underlying property, prior to the disbursement of resources by the Trust, unless the Advisory Committee authorizes investing in such Real Estate Assets without any of the referred to contracts.
- Investments in Financial Assets shall bear in mind that the Investment Policy aims at maximizing the surpluses' returns and security, so that resources are available to pay the Expenses, Distributable Cash Flow, and real estate assets' acquisitions approved by the Advisory Committee.

Investments in Financial Assets will be handled by the Management Agent, following the Advisory Committee's guidelines and profitability and security criteria, as follows:

- (i) Currency: Investments denominated in Pesos, Dollars, and/or Euros; and
- (ii) Depositary: The Trust Company shall deposit the Trust's resources with an Acceptable Depositary.
- The Trust may not invest in Management Agent's securities. However, the Trust Company may invest the Liquidity Surpluses and the Operation and Reacquisition Funds' resources in the Trust Company's open collective portfolio Valor Plus, Financial Assets, and hedging instruments.
- The Trust may only invest in Real Estate Assets after the resources for the Operation Fund, the Reacquisition Fund, and the Distributable Cash Flows are provisioned, to maintain a balance between the necessary liquidity and the expected return.
- To assess a Real Estate Asset and/or Trust Right whose underlying assets are Real Estate Assets, a detailed credit and financial analysis of the Trust's counterparty will be carried out to quantify the Credit Risk, in accordance with the Trust's credit risk policy.
- A similar analysis of the Credit Risk and others, including commercial and construction risks shall be performed in connection with the Trust's counterparty and the Real Estate Asset to be acquired, whenever the Trust makes advance payments of the purchase price of the Real Estate Assets and/or trust rights whose underlying assets are Real Estate Assets.

- The Real Estate Asset may be built assets, assets under construction, or assets to be built. The objective will be to verify that the investment complies with the Investment Policy guidelines and the risk is adequately counterweighed by the expected profitability and/or required guarantees, or other risk-mitigation mechanisms, as applicable. Such guarantees and/or mechanisms shall consider the proper mitigation of the credit, construction, liquidity, and solvency risks depending on their nature and the prevailing market conditions.

Advance payments of the purchase price of Assets under development approved by the Advisory Committee shall abide by the Price's Advance Payment Limit and the Price's Advance Payment Limit on a Particular Asset referred to in section 2.3.3 of this Prospectus. No advance payments whatsoever shall exceed the purchase price.

2.3.3. Exposure Levels

- To ensure the tenants' diversification and thus reduce the Credit Risk, the Trust's Portfolio shall have the following exposure limits:
 - (i) Consolidated income from a tenant and its Related Companies may not exceed twenty percent (20%) of the Trust's Annual Income for a calendar year.
 - (ii) The average consolidated value of the assets let to a tenant and its Related Companies may not exceed twenty percent (20%) of the Trust Real Estate Asset's value for the calendar year.

These limits shall apply following twenty-four (24) months from the Subscription Date of the first Tranche of the Issuance Program.

- To ensure the geographical diversification and per asset types to reduce the Market Risk, the Trust's Portfolio will have the following exposure limits:
 - (i) The exposure for each of the different types of Real Estate Assets –identified in subparagraph 2.3.1 of this section– shall not exceed seventy percent (70%) of the Trust's Real Estate Assets' value or Annual Income.
 - (ii) The Real Estate Assets' average value per geographical area shall not exceed eighty-five percent (85%) for Bogota, fifty percent (50%) for Medellin, fifty percent (50%) for Cali, and thirty percent (30%) for other areas during each year.

(iii) The Annual Limit for Assets under Development shall abide by the following rules:

- Whenever the Advisory Committee becomes aware of any business opportunity on an Asset under Development (the "Business Under Development Opportunity"), to obtain the authorization for the execution of a Binding Document in connection with said Asset under Development (the "Application Date") the Manager shall:
- First, calculate the Annual Limit for Assets under Development for each calendar year (the "Measured Year") to elapse from the Application Date's calendar year to the last calendar year where (in a chronological sense) the Trust expects to acquire the real estate assets under the executed Binding Documents.

For this calculation per calendar year, the period elapsing from January 1 to December 31 of said year is understood for each year.

The calculation shall be done as follows for each Measured Year:

- a. The value resulting from adding the acquisition prices agreed under the Binding Documents in connection with the Assets under Development that the Trust expects to acquire in the Measured Year, directly or indirectly, except for built to suit schemes, divided by
- b. The value resulting from adding: (i) The value of the Trust's assets (as reflected in the assets account of the Trust's balance sheet as of the Application Date) plus (ii) The sum of the acquisition prices agreed under the Binding Documents in connection with the Assets under Development and any other Permitted Investments that the Trust expects to acquire from the Application Date to the Measured Year.

Whenever the Measured Year is the calendar year where the Business Opportunity is expected to be acquired or a later calendar year, the Manager shall include the Business Opportunity's initial price among the components under paragraphs (a) and (b) above. The percentage resulting from this calculation for any Measured Year shall not exceed 15%.

- Second, on each Application Date, the Manager shall calculate and submit to the Advisory Committee the result of the Annual Limit for Assets under Development for each of the Measured Years. This result shall not exceed forty percent (40%):
 - a. The result of adding all the acquisition prices agreed under the Binding Documents in connection with the Assets under Development that the Trust expects to acquire between the Application Date and the last Measured Year, divided by

- b. The result of adding: (i) The value of the Trust's assets (as reflected in the assets account of the Trust's balance sheet as of the Application Date) plus (ii) The sum of the acquisition prices agreed under the Binding Documents in connection with the Assets under Development and any other Permitted Investments that the Trust expects to acquire from the Application Date to the last Measured Year.

These exposure limits shall apply following twenty-four (24) months from the Subscription Date of the Issuance Program's first Tranche.

- To mitigate the risks associated with the advance payment of the Assets under Development's purchase price, the following limits shall apply:
 - i. Limit to the Price's Advance Payments, which shall be calculated as the proportion of (a) The result of adding the Trust's advance payments of the Assets under Development's price, divided by (b) The result of adding (i) The Trust's assets total value (as reflected in the assets account of the Trust's balance sheet) plus (ii) The total value of the Assets under Development to be acquired by the Trust and in connection with which it makes any advance payments of the price under the Binding Documents. The percentage resulting from this calculation shall not exceed 10%. Advance payments of the Assets under Development's price under built to suit schemes shall not be computed or be subject to this limit.
 - ii. Limit to the Price's Advance Payments on any Particular Asset, which shall apply to each of the Assets under Development that, upon the Trust making the first advance payment of their purchase price: (i) Neither have lease or concession agreements executed for an area equal to or exceeding seventy percent (70%) of the Real Estate Asset's total area; (ii) Nor have stipulated a minimum secured revenue, preferential flow, or any other business risk-mitigation mechanism on behalf of the Trust –as defined in each case depending on the type of project and economic conditions negotiated– to guarantee that the Trust receives revenues at least equal to the amount receivable under any lease or concession of an area equal to exceeding seventy percent (70%) of the Real Estate Asset's total area. In these cases, this particular limit shall prevent the Trust from making any advance payments that exceed fifty percent (50%) of the relevant Assets under Development's total purchase price.

2.3.4. Financial Indebtedness

Financial Indebtedness is common in the real estate business given the low volatility of its flows. This may potentially increase the Investors' returns, as long as the capital returns exceed the Financial Indebtedness' effective cost.

Financial Indebtedness may consist of any instrument or credit transaction, including bank loans, real estate leases, securities issues, and receivables associated to term payments of the price of Real Estate Assets and/or Trust Rights whose underlying assets are Real Estate Assets acquired by the Trust.

- In furtherance of its purpose, the Trust may obtain funds from Financial Indebtedness to: (i) Make improvements to the Real Estate Assets; (ii) Finance the Operation Fund; (iii) Maximize the Investors' potential return; and/or (iv) Pay the under Reacquisition Transactions at the Investor's and/or the Trust's Option.

The Trust shall not take on Financial Indebtedness for the acquisition of new Real Estate Assets if the Operating Profit (according to the Trust's financial statements for the most recent 3 complete calendar months immediately preceding the measurement date) is 1.7 times below the Net Financial Cost for the last 3 complete calendar months immediately preceding the relevant measurement date (the "Interest Hedge Ratio"). This provision shall not apply to binding agreements for the acquisition of Real Estate Assets that have been executed or are entered into upon the Trust meeting the Interest Hedge Ratio.

- The Trust's total Financial Indebtedness shall not exceed 35% of the Trust's assets total value (as reflected in the assets account of the Trust's balance sheet).
- The Trust's total Short-Term Financial Indebtedness shall not exceed 30% of the Trust's assets total value (as reflected in the assets account of the Trust's balance sheet).
- The Trust's total Long-Term Financial Indebtedness shall not exceed 30% of the Trust's assets total value (as reflected in the assets account of the Trust's balance sheet).
- The sum of the Short-Term Financial Indebtedness and the Long-Term Financial Indebtedness shall not exceed the limit provided for the Trust's Financial Indebtedness total value. The Advisory Committee shall previously approve the Financial Indebtedness.
- The Financial Indebtedness shall be incurred in under market conditions and rates.
- The Trust may guarantee the Financial Indebtedness' payment through encumbrances on its assets, provided that the total value of the Trust's Real Estate Assets subject to encumbrances securing the payment does not exceed fifty percent (50%) of the Trust's Value.
- The Financial Indebtedness guidelines are Trust management guidelines. If at any given time the Portfolio fails to comply with these guidelines, the Advisory Committee shall adopt any relevant measures to adjust it to the Financial Indebtedness guidelines herein.
- If the adjustments are not possible, the Investors Legal Representative will be informed so that it calls an extraordinary Investors General Assembly to adopt any corrective measures.

2.3.5. Insurance

- The Real Estate Assets owned by the Trust during the Trust Agreement's term shall be insured against fire and earthquake risks, for their replacement value, by a well-reputed insurance company in the Colombian insurance market. At the Advisory Committee's discretion, any TMIA risks (Third Parties' Maliciously Intentioned Acts) shall be insured.
- The Trust shall be designated as the only insured party and beneficiary under such policies, regarding its insurable interest in the Real Estate Assets.
- The Trust will be designated as the only insured and beneficiary of such policies with respect to its insurable interest under the Real Estate Assets.
- The Real Estate Assets owned by the Trust are insured under a Material Damages All-Risks policy and a Tort Liability policy. The Material Damages All-Risks policy, subject to its terms and conditions, insures the Real Estate Assets against damages or material losses resulting from the risks covered. The Material Damages All-Risks policy covers the following assets owned by the Trust or where the Trust has an insurable interest: buildings, materials and equipment, electrical and electronic equipment, Third Parties' Maliciously Intentioned Acts (TMIA), strike, civil or popular riots, and terrorism. The Tort Liability policy, on the other hand, subject to its conditions, is intended to compensate any damage covered by the Tort Liability policy, caused to third parties by the Trust.

Additionally, the Advisory Committee may request the Manager to require each tenant of the Trust's Real Estate Assets to contract a lease fee-compliance insurance policy with a Colombian insurance company well-reputed in the Colombian insurance market.

The insured value will be up to one hundred percent (100%) of the lease fees' amount during the lease agreement's relevant term and the policy shall be valid for the same term or one year, extendable annually, during the term of the Lease Agreement. The Trust shall be designated as the sole beneficiary of the policies with respect to its insurable interest.

2.3.6. Payment in Kind

The Trust may receive as consideration for the Securities issued in the First Round With Payment in Kind, part of the ownership rights over a property, provided that the value of the property to receive as payment for the Securities does not exceed: (i) Twenty-five percent (25%) of the Issuance amount of the Tranche under which such property will be securitized; and (ii) Fifty percent (50%) of the value of the property that will be paid in kind.

If a real estate asset will be securitized under a Tranche, the amount that the Trust may receive as consideration for the Securities issued in the First Round with Payment in Kind shall be up to fifty percent (50%) of the new Tranche's Issuance amount.

The procedure established in subparagraph 1.7.13 of this Prospectus shall be followed for the placement and subscription of any Securities payable in kind.

2.3.6.1. Risks Associated with Payments in Kind

2.3.6.1.1. Transfer of Ownership Rights

Because the Securities payable in kind shall be issued in the name of the Determined Person on the date of the First Round with Payment in Kind, time at which the relevant property or part thereof will not have been transferred to the Trust, there is a risk that the Determined Person fails to transfer the property or part thereof to the Trust, despite being registered with DECEVAL as owner of the Securities.

In this case, the Trust would be harmed, as it would have paid for a property that it does not own and, accordingly, cannot economically exploit. Investors would be also affected because the distributable resources' amount would be lower to any deliverable amount if the Trust were economically exploiting the property already paid for.

To minimize the likelihood of this risk, the process described in paragraph 1 of Section 1.7.13 of this Prospectus provides that the Securities must be pledged to guarantee that the transaction will be complied with. Also, the promises of purchase and sale that the Trust executes include penalty clauses that would be enforceable if the Determined Person failed to transfer the property.

2.3.6.1.2. Breach of Promises of Purchase and Sale

If the Trust fails to comply with any of the promises of purchase and sale executed in furtherance of a Payment in Kind transaction, the Trust would be required to pay the penalty clause agreed to under the relevant contract. In addition, the Trust's breach of the promises of purchase and sale may give rise to civil liability proceedings requiring it to compensate any damages caused, in addition to paying the penalty clauses.

2.3.6.1.3. Unblocking of Securities

Any Determined Persons participating in the First Round with Payment in Kind will bear the risk that the Trust fails to instruct the Determined Persons' direct depositors to issue the order to unblock the Securities delivered as part of the payment of the Determined Persons' real estate assets or that DECEVAL fails to unblock said Securities upon receiving the order to unblock them. The Determined Persons would be required to bring any relevant legal actions for: (i) The Trust to instruct the Determined Persons' direct depositors to unblock the Securities; and/or (ii)

DECEVAL to unblock the Securities.

2.4. REAL ESTATE ASSETS UNDER THE ELEVENTH TRANCHE

The Trust Company shall deliver to the Superintendency the list of THE Real Estate Assets making up the Eleventh Tranche, along with their corresponding Commercial Appraisals, before the Tenth Tranche's first public offering notice is published.

2.9. FINANCIAL FORECASTS

The sole purpose of the financial forecasts below is to serve as a reference for those Investors interested in this securitization process and the market in general. Neither the parameters, nor the forecasts or results, bind the parties involved in this real estate securitization process. Therefore, these forecasts are not, in any manner whatsoever, obligations as to the Securities' future yields.

Additionally, because this is an Issuance Program, the Trust will be a dynamic vehicle that may expand its Portfolio with the issuance of new Tranches up to its authorized amount. Therefore, for purposes of this simulation, only the current Permitted Investments and those making up the Eleventh Tranche were considered. However, as new tranches are issued, these results will be updated.

Finally, forecasts are based on the parameters that, on the Eleventh Tranche's Issue Date, were in line with the country's macroeconomic, social, and financial reality. These parameters may be subject to changes that may alter the forecasts and their results, particularly the expected profitability, without such changes binding in any manner whatsoever the parties involved in this real estate securitization process.

2.9.4. Expected Profitability

Based on the above parameters, the expected profitability for a ten (10) year horizon was calculated assuming, for the base case, a subscription price of ten million three-hundred and ten thousand pesos (COP 10.310.000) Colombian legal tender, a 30% leverage, and a 1.0% actual appreciation of the Real Estate Assets and Trust Rights whose underlying assets are Real Estate Assets. Based on this, the base case yields an annual return for the Eleventh Tranche's Investors ranging between the CPI + 7.8% and the CPI + 8.3%.

| Expected Average Profitability | |
|--------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| Flow | 59% |
| Appreciation | 41% |
| Annual Return | CPI + 7.8% and CPI + 8.3% |

It is worth noting that the 59% expected return comes from the profitability obtained from the Distributable Cash Flow and the remainder from the appreciation profitability.

2.9.5. Sensitivities

Sensitivities were applied to the critical factors, to determine their impact on the expected profitability. Among the sensitized variables are the Vacancy Rate, the Real Estate Assets' expected appreciation, the Trust Rights with underlying Real Estate Assets, and the Reacquisition Fund.

Vacancy Rate:

The Base Case contemplates a vacancy rate equal to the one in the table of subparagraph 2.9.2. Currently, a 5% stabilized vacancy rate is assumed throughout the appreciation horizon. A range between 0 and 2.0 times the vacancy rate, was contemplated in the Base Case for the sensitivities.

| Vacancy Rate | Expected Profitability |
|--------------------------|--------------------------------|
| 0.0 x | CPI + 8.3% - CPI + 8.8% |
| 0.5 x | CPI + 8.0% - CPI + 8.5% |
| 1.0 x (Base Case) | CPI + 7.8% - CPI + 8.3% |
| 1.5 x | CPI + 7.3% - CPI + 7.8% |
| 2.0 x | CPI + 7.0% - CPI + 7.5% |

As noted, a 0.5x increase or decrease of the projected vacancy rates for the Base Case has a positive impact of approximately 0.35% on the expected profitability.

Actual Appreciation:

Though in the long term the Real Estate Assets –whether or not underlying the Trust Rights– tend to appreciate in actual terms due to their high-specifications; a 1.0% actual appreciation was assumed for the Base Case throughout the forecast and sensitivities were applied to ± 0.5% variations.

| Actual Appreciation | Expected Profitability |
|-------------------------|--------------------------------|
| 2.0% | CPI + 8.5% - CPI + 9.0% |
| 1.5% | CPI + 8.1% - CPI + 8.6% |
| 1.0% (Base Case) | CPI + 7.8% - CPI + 8.3% |
| 0.5% | CPI + 7.4% - CPI + 7.9% |
| 0.0% | CPI + 7.1% - CPI + 7.6% |
| -0.5% | CPI + 6.8% - CPI + 7.3% |
| -1.0% | CPI + 6.5% - CPI + 7.0% |
| -1.5% | CPI + 6.1% - CPI + 6.6% |
| -2.0% | CPI + 5.8% - CPI + 6.3% |

A zero point five (0.5%) annual variation in the Real Estate Assets' appreciation/depreciation – whether or not underlying the Trust Rights–, has an approximate 0.30% impact on the expected returns.

With these real estate sensitivities, it is observed that the expected profitability could vary between CPI + 5.8% and CPI + 9.0% per year.

Reacquisition Fund:

No resources are being provisioned for the Reacquisition Fund under the Base Case, because this is a last resort mechanism to provide liquidity, but at a significant discount on the Security's value. Therefore, it is very unlikely to be used.

However, 25% and 50% annual provisions of the Adjusted Operating Flow were sensitized as of 2019 to determine their impact on the Distributable Cash Flow and total profitability.

| Reacquisition Fund* | Distributable Yields | Expected Returns |
|-----------------------|------------------------|--------------------------------|
| 0% (Base Case) | 61.2% | CPI + 7.8% - CPI + 8.3% |
| 25% | 49.7% | CPI + 7.5% - CPI + 8.0% |
| 50% | 35.9% | CPI + 7.2% - CPI + 7.7% |

* % of the Net Flow provisioned to finance the Reacquisition Fund.

 Profitability from Distributable Yields.

The Reacquisition Fund's main impact is the decrease of the Distributable Cash Flow. If 50% of the Adjusted Operating Flow is provisioned during the following 10 years, the expected return would decrease from CPI + 8.1% to CPI + 7.5%. In this scenario, the Distributable Cash Flow's return would be 35.9% of the expected return.

However, if the Securities are reacquired, their profitability increases as they are acquired at a discount that generates a profit for the Trust.

Stress Test:

To illustrate the expected profitability under very adverse market conditions, stress tests were performed on these two critical variables, as seen in the table below.

| Profitability | | Accumulated Actual Depreciation | | | | | | | | | | | |
|---------------|--|---------------------------------|---------------|-----|---------------|-----|---------------|------------|---------------|-----|---------------|-----|-----|
| | | BASE CASE | | | 10% | | 15% | | 20% | | 25% | | |
| Vacancy | | IRR | IRR Component | IRR | IRR Component | IRR | IRR Component | IRR | IRR Component | IRR | IRR Component | | |
| | | IRR | Appreciation | IRR | Appreciation | IRR | Appreciation | IRR | Appreciation | IRR | Appreciation | | |
| Base Case | | IPC + 8.1% | 59% | 41% | IPC + 6.7% | 68% | 32% | IPC + 6.3% | 71% | 29% | IPC + 5.9% | 74% | 26% |
| | | IPC + 7.6% | 56% | 44% | IPC + 6.1% | 66% | 34% | IPC + 5.7% | 69% | 31% | IPC + 5.3% | 72% | 28% |
| | | IPC + 6.5% | 50% | 50% | IPC + 5.0% | 59% | 41% | IPC + 4.6% | 63% | 37% | IPC + 4.1% | 67% | 33% |
| 10% | | | | | | | | | | | | | |
| 20% | | | | | | | | | | | | | |

The results of the sensitivities applied to the critical variables show that the vehicle's characteristics yield attractive returns, even under stress scenarios.

To the extent that PEI has a financial structure that is non-speculative given the source of the revenues, the largest part of the profitability comes from the cash flows under the leases, concessions, or other contract types; upon sensitizing the vacancy and appreciation of the assets making up the portfolio, even under acid scenarios, the result obtained is an IRR of the CPI + 4.1%. Profitability remains even under adverse scenarios with a 20% vacancy and the assets losing 20% of their value.

To understand the evolution of the IRR in cases of stress, it is important to bear in mind that the base case profitability of the CPI + 8.1% is 59% from of the flows under lease, concession, and other contract types and 41% from the Real Estate Assets' appreciation, whether or not underlying Trust Rights. As seen in the table above, to the extent that the Real Estate Assets – whether or not underlying Trust Rights– depreciate, the profitability's flow component increases marginally while, if there is a significant increase of the vacancy, the flow component decreases in a greater proportion.

Cross-checking of the amounts and dates in LOGAN and CBRE's appraisals, as provided by the Management Agent, with the information included in paragraph 2.4 "Commercial Appraisals" and the accounting as of December 31, 2018. Nutresa Palermo, Ideo Cali and Plaza Central's appraisals were updated in 2019; therefore, the values included are being audited.

2. The acquisition price and the charity, registry, and notarial expenses described in paragraph 2.4 "Acquisition Price", were cross-checked against the accounting as of December 31, 2018. These amounts were cross-checked against the deed and the notary, charity, and registry costs' settlement. Plaza Central's purchase price was determined on 50% of the acquired and capitalized total.

Cross-checking of the information on the lease agreements described in paragraph 2, "Lease Agreements Terms", with the contracts delivered by the Management Agent, based on the existing agreements' contractual conditions as of December 31, 2018, as well as assumptions on the renewal and placement of new contracts by the Real Estate Manager. The annual lease fee was determined by multiplying the monthly lease fee by 12 months.

The financial, accounting, tax, and extra-accounting information is the Management Agent's responsibility.
